GOV. STONE SENDS GEN. MILLER

DISORDER IN SPITE OF TROOPS

TO FIND WHY IT CONTINUES.

His Next Move to Ask for Federal Troops. and It Is Reported That the War Department Will Soon Send Officers to Look Over the Anthracite Region.

TAMAQUA, Pa., Oct. 10 .- The National Guard has now been in the field three days and during that time as many acts of vioence have been committed as before the troops arrived

Two houses have been dynamited; an attack has been made on the Royal Oak colliery at Shamokin, and the workmen clubbed and stoned; a bridge has been dynamited; a non-union engineer was probably fatally injured at Shamokin; hree coal trains have been attacked; families of non-union men have been terrorized in the Panther Creek Valley, and, many places, workmen have been attacked while on their way to and from work and cruelly beaten.

All this has happened in the southern part of the region. In the northern districts the reign of terror has continued in the

The continuance of lawlessness prompted Gov. Stone to send Major-Gen. Miller, in command of the guard, out an an investigating tour. The Governor wants to know why it is that order has not been restored. He wants to know especially whether the force at present in the field is unable to cope with the exigencies.

If such is the case, the Governor will make his final move in his effort to uphold law in the Commonwealth, and will ask the President to send Federal troops to Such a step, it is believed, would solve the problem and result in a speedy re-sumption of work at the mines. The outlaws in the ranks of the miners are doubly afraid of the Regulars. They have but little respect for the National Guardsmen, because they know that they are very tolerant and that their officers are disposed to deal leniently with all persons who are taken into custody. In the western part of the Schuvlkill Valley a general resumption of work at the Philadelphia and Reading collieries seems to be near. The Brookside and the Good Springs collieries are working, and are producing about 4,000 tons of coal a an effort is now being made to force the two plants to suspend operations. The workmen themselves have made an appeal that troops be sent there to protect them. Operators and sub-bosses are working among the miners to induce them to return to work, now that sufficient military guard can be offered to any man desirous of going into the mine. Strikers are told that the big coal-carrying companies will not give in, despite the efforts of the politicians to end the tie-up.

There was an increase in the ranks of the non-unionists to-day at four big collieries, and by next Monday the officials expect to have coal cut at certain mines

A number of coal operators in the Schuylkill-Northumberland district had a conference with some of the principal officers of the Second Brigade at Ashland to-day. The latter were informed that a strong effort would be made to open up the mines oon, and that if the troops were posted in

TROOPS AID CIVIL OFFICERS. Their Presence Enables Despatch of 22 Cars of Coal.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Oct. 10.-The first rouble which has been experienced with strikers here and the first call for the assistance of troops came to-day, when Col. H. T. Dechert of the Second Philadelphia Troop, stationed near New Philadelphia. was asked shortly before noon to support the civil authorities in making an arrest. Charles Casper, a foreigner, was wanted on the charge of highway robbery for holding up three men who were on their way from Cumbola to Eaglehill The Coal and Iron Police and constables, when they attempted to make an arrest at Cumbola, were intercepted by a mob of foreigners

The police applied to Col. Dechert and he promptly sent Company L, under Major A. P. Kunzig and Capt. Robert E. Campbell. They boarded a special train furnished by the Philadelphia and Reading nished by the Philadelphia and Reading officials, and upon their arrival the mob dispersed and the arrest was easily made.

To-day the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company was able to make its first shipment of coal from the Silver Creek colliery since repeated attempts were made to blow up the railroad bridge at Yew Philadelphia. The presence of the troops brought this about. Twenty-two cars of coal were sent down the line,

PARSON BROKE MEDICAL LAW Said to Have Dispensed Cures for the Religious Anti-Drug Society.

The Rev. W. N. Richie, D. D., a Presbyterian clergyman with an office in the Presbyterian Building, and who is secretary of the Interdenominational Committee for the Cure of the Drug Habit, of which, according to his circulars, the Rev. R. F. Sample, former Moderator of the Presbyterian General Assembly, is president, was found guilty of practising medicine illegally in Special Sessions yesterday and fined $75. The New York County Medical Society was the complainant in the case. Two woman detectives got the evidence on which the minister was convicted.

For the last three years Dr. Richie, according to the complaint in the case, has advertised a cure for the drug habit. According to circulars and pamphlets which he sent out the interdenominational committee was formed for the purpose of reday. This fact has been brought to the ceiving donations for the curing of victims attention of the mine workers' leaders, and of the drug habit by Dr. Richie's remedy The treatment was for those in impoverished circumstances, who could not afford to procure the remedy themselves.

In addition to Dr. Sample, the other officers of the committee are, according to the circulars. Thomas O. Conant. LL. D. editor of the Examiner, first vice-president; the Rev. Francis E. Marsten, D. D., second vice-president and W. W. Westervelt, a awyer of 33 Pine street, treasurer. In a pamphlet issued by Dr. Richie as secretary f the committee letters are given from dergyman and physicians, whose names are not given in full. One of the letters, however, is signed by the late Dr. John Hall. Dr. Richie has an office on the ninth floor of the Presbyterian building.

Dr. J. V. Young of the County Medical Association said last night that the society Richie's work last August. Dr. Young said that complaint had been made that Dr. Richie was not a licensed physician the law of this State by prescribing for those who came to him.

"Dr. Richie," said Dr. Young, "did not have the right to prescribe a cure for the morphine habit. A druggist has the right to sell patent medicines or any other medicines to those who call for them, but unless he has regularly passed his examination as a physician the law says he cannot prescribe any remedy. That was what Dr. Richie apparently was doing. He was Richie apparently was doing. He was prescribing his own remedy, according to he complaints we received, and as a clergy man he had no right to do that, no matter how efficacious it might be."

Dr. Richie, whenseen at his office last night, refused to talk about his trial and its result. He referred the reporter to Mr. Westervelt, the treasurer of the committee, who he said was his lawyer. Mr. Westervelt lives out of town. When asked where his cure was administered and where his sanitarium was, Dr. Richie replied that his office served all his purposes. "But I do not care to talk about this matter," he said, "and you will really have dent of the Presbyterian Supply Committee, who is one of the officers of the Interde-nominational Committee for the Cure of the Drug Habit, was much surprised when he heard of Dr. Richie's experience in court. He said last night that the committee had been formed more with an idea of helping needy people who wished to take the cure and also to supply with cloth-ing poor people who had been cured and to help put them on their feet again. Dr. Richie," said Dr. Marsten last night.

"is a clergyman in the best standing. This cure was invented by a man of science and Dr. Richie obtained it from him. It has cured many to my own knowledge, and the testimonials from such men as Dr. John Hall show that it is all right. I do not think that Dr. Richie was in the habit of pre-scribing the medicine himself. "I am quite sure that he has a physician in his office who does that. Of course he is not a physician. I do not think he gets much, if anything, out of it himself. We believed we were doing good in aiding his work and formed this committee. Of course we have nothing to do with the cure itself "

The Republican party, through Superin-endent of Elections McCullagh and Com-missioner of Police Partridge, has caused he police officers in charge of each place of registration to challenge every first voter and every citizen who has not heretofore voted in the election district who presents himself for registration. The order is issued under the seal of the Police Department, and signed by commissioner Partridge. The purpose of this order is apparent. With threats of imprisonment and with direct intimidation, they are attempting to keep legal voters from the polis. Tammany Hall, insistent upon a fair election, demands that every citizen entitled to register shall be permitted to do so without being hampered or interfered with.

The Tammany Hall Law Committee will be at the service of any citizen, regardless of his pointies, who may be the victim of this new Republican scheme to defeat the purposes of the law.

SIX KILLED AFTER A WEDDING And Three Persons Wounded-Militia

Called to Prevent Further Trouble. NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 10 .- A family feud at El Dorado, just across the Louisiana line, resulted in several shots and the calling out of the El Dorado military company to suppress disorder. The trouble grew out of the wedding of Miss Carrie Mullens, the daughter of a photographer in El Dorado, and a young man from Texas, against the wishes of her father. The young people, fearing violence from Mullens, secured the protection of the City Marshel, Guy Tucker, and Constable H. L. Deering.

In the scrimmage that was bound to come Mullens was killed. Three friends of his, Tom, Walter and Matt Parnell, took up the quarrel and attacked Deering and Tucker, who were in the company of City Physician Hilton. A lively shooting affray followed, in which three of the six men were killed, and the other three were seriously wounded. The dead are Tom Parnell, Walter Parnell and Marshal Guy Tucker. The wounded are Constable Deering, Dr. Hilton and Matt Parnell. As friends of both parties threatened to take up the feud, the El Dorado guards

The Historical Society was represented at the argument, and it was suggested for the society that the building be temporarily shored up and removed later to another site, but Justice Leventritt said that such a disposition was not in the power of the Court. He suggested that the society might preserve the pieces of the building and by putting them together again reconstruct it on some other site.

As soon as the Crown Prince's seventy-three pieces of personal baggage could be transferred from the liner to the navy yard tug Powhatan the Siamese party were taken from quarantine to the Pennsylvania Railroad station at Jersey City, where a private train had been waiting all day to take them to Washington. They left for Washington at 1 o'clock this morning. The royal guests were met at Quarantine by Herbert H. D. The were ordered out and succeeded in preother members of the welcoming party were the Siamese Minister, E. H. Loftus secretary of the Siamese legation; Lieutenant-Commander Eberle, representing the navy; the Hon. William Potter, former Minister to Italy; Col. David B. and Edwin Morgan. It was 11 o'clock last night when the Fuerst Bismarck reached Quarantine. The receiving party had been down the bay on the Dolphin since 9 o'clock in the morning waiting for her. Mr. Peirce and all the gentlemen with him went aboard the steamship as soon as she had anchored and while his stack of trunks, suit cases and hat boxes were being put aboard the tug the Crown Prince held reception in the music room. Reports of the Crown Prince's democratic ways had preceded him. On the ship last night he was at first a little more democratic than was pleasing to some of his suite. His brother suggested to him that he sit down and let the others stand, so that there might be some distinction

Mr. Peirce welcomed the future King of Siam and the Crown Prince responded in good English. He said that he was greatly interested in the agriculture and manufacturing of this country and hoped to get a lot of information about them that entually would be of benefit to Siam. Col. San Francisco Attorney Says There Is an Heir to Estate-Claim Laughed At. SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 10 .- Attorney William M. Cannon has sprung an heir of Charles L. Fair on the executors. He has notified Hermann Oelrichs that Fair left a child who is entitled to a share of the seven-million-dollar estate, but he refused to divulge the name of the mother or the sex of the infant or the place where the child could be seen. Mr. Oelrichs laughs at the man's claims, but Attorney Heggerty says that if Cannon presses a claim the same procedure will be adopted as in the case of Laura Biggar; that is, warrants of arrest will be issued for

It is positively known that Fair left no children, so that if Cannon's client comes out into the open he is pretty sure to be arrested.

Seeing Governor Odell and Mayor Low. The peacemaker statesmen and the anthracite coal operators met again yesterday in Senator Platt's office at 49 Broadvay and failed to reach a basis for settling the strike Apparently the only conclusion arrived at was that the operators would not negotiate on any terms which Senators Platt, Quay and Penrose and Gov. Odell were able to propose. The operators were represented at the conference by President Baer of the Reading and E. B. Thomas, chairman of the Erie board of directors. When the talk was over neither side was willing to tell what concessions the statesmen had asked, but there is very high authority for saying that some of the representations which were made to the men in control of the coal mines were not con-

Whatever the other pressure that was brought to bear upon them may have been, the operators seem to have resisted it. After the conference a statement was made for them which said that it was impracticable to reach a conclusion of the strike "on the basis suggested this morn-

DEMAND FOR $5.25 COAL.

Last evening one of those who took part in the conference at Senator Platt's office said that the proposition made by the statesman to Mr. Baer and Mr. Thomas, representing the operators, was that if by Tuesday next the output from the mines warranted a reduction in the price of coal the distributing agents of the operators should be immediately instructed to offer anthracite coal throughout the United States at a price of $5...5 a ton. Meantime the operators were to do everything possible to increase the output at the mines. The statesmen are looking forward with eagerness to Tuesday, in the hope that by that time the output at the mines will have been increased so that the operators may issue an order to the distributing agents authorizing them to sell coal at $5.25 a ton ODELL QUICK TO RESENT A SLUR. Mr. Baer and Mr. Thomas, representing the operators, it was asserted on the highest authority, told the statesmen that politicians should not have interfered with this matter." This led to more or less irritable talk in the conference, and Gov. Odell, replying, said that he did not appear there as a politician, but as the Governor of the State of New York, representing seven millions of people. Mr. Baer and Mr. Thomas finally told the statesmen flatly that they would not settle his strike for the reason that they were fighting for a principle; and then they had given way to the miners' union only to find that they, the operators, had been treated most unfairly and unrighteously. Mr. Baer and Mr. Thomas reiterated that here would be no settlement of the strike because they were fighting for a principle and a principle which was supported by the laws of the United States. PLAN FOR PUBLIC CONTROL OF MINES.
